

Supplementary Figure 2: Left heart catheterisation. The left anterior descending artery had overlap with obtuse marginals and its small first diagonal. Mid vessel, there was a focal stenosis up to 80% in some frames and 60-70% in others. There was post-stenotic dilation and mild haziness. The ostium of the posterior left ventricular artery appeared to have a severe (70% or greater) stenosis (not shown).